LATER PROM PORT ROYAL

WASHINGTON, Friday, June 13, 1869. FROM PORT ROYAL.

Edward L. Pearce, agent of the Treasury Department, at Port Royal, arrived here to-day via Fortress Monroe, where the steamer Massachusetts, which left Beaufort on Tuesday, landed him. His report of the agricultural condition of the islands, cultivated by free negro labor, is encouraging. Some 13,000 acres are planted-nearly half in cotton-and the rope are forward, and well cared for.

News had reached Beanfort of the appearance at Port Royal Ferry of a roying party of Rebels, who fired at our pickets, killing one man and wounding several. It was supposed at first that a general attack was intended; but it soon appeared that the alarm was raised by a small guerrilla band.
